

THE FEDERAL BONDING PROGRAM

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

A UNIQUE HIRING TOOL TO HELP BUSINESSES GROW

Job seekers who are dedicated, enthusiastic and ready to work may face significant barriers due to previous justice-involvement, poor credit history, substance abuse, or other economic disadvantages.

The USDOL's Federal Bonding Program (FBP) gives employers the peace of mind to provide all individuals job opportunities with limited risk by providing free fidelity bonds to job candidates.

The FBP's 50+ year track record fully demonstrates that people with these backgrounds succeed in the workplace when given the chance.

FBP bonds are available for ANY job, ANY employer, and in ANY state to help people secure a job. Bonds insure against theft, forgery, larceny, and embezzlement by employees.

"I have simple words for employers. Use the Federal Bonding Program. Try it--do it! There's nothing but upside to it. Truly, you're getting the most wonderful employees that are out there."

Charles Maymon, Regional CEO, American Ambulance Service

A SUCCESS STORY FOR EMPLOYERS & EMPLOYEES

Thousands of employers across the nation have integrated the FBP into their hiring practices. Since its inception in 1966, 54,000 bonds have been issued to help secure job placements in dozens of different industries that support our country's economy. Throughout the history of the program, only 1% of all bonds have had claims filed.

FREE AND SIMPLE TO OBTAIN

Bonds are provided at no cost to the employer or to the job-candidate through their State Bonding Coordinator. The bond reimburses the employer for the dishonest acts of the employee for a six month term and may be renewed for a second six month term upon request. Each bond has a $5,000 limit with $0 deductible so there are never any out-of-pocket expenses borne by the employer. And, there are no applications for the employee or employer. It's that easy!
